Our Challenge

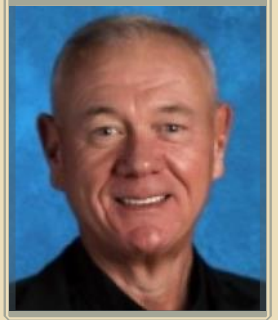

Dear friends,

The Bible portrays faith as a paradoxical partnership between the individual and God. We can decide to seek God's will, but we can only do God's will with the help of God. God must give us what we choose, and we must choose what God gives us. We cannot imagine all the things that lie ahead of us when we choose the way of holiness. But God gives us the light we need for the journey of faith.

Each step we take brings us closer to the holy mystery of God's grace. Why did Jesus make such extraordinary demands of his disciples? He put wrong thinking in the same category as wrongdoing in order to show that we can never become holy on our own strength. Our holiness ultimately comes as a gift from God. Maybe you have jokingly said, "I'm humble and proud of it!" This phrase captures the difficulty of the person who is trying to live a holy life. How can we strive for holiness without falling into the pride that undermines holiness? The only way to avoid pride is to recognize that whatever holiness we possess comes from God. The surest way to miss out on holiness is to become holy for our own sake rather than for the sake of others. Holiness is no technique for gaining earthly happiness or heavenly reward. Holiness is a way of glorifying God and serving others. Life is filled with strange ironies. Neither happiness nor holiness can be won by our own efforts. The most important things in life come to us indirectly, as by-products of our service to other people. We are blessed primarily when we are a blessing to others.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Since the publication of "Sacrosanctum Concilium," the Vatican II Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, the Catholic Church has experienced both profound continuity and tremendous change in her life of worship. WORD OF LIFE

“Prayer is the foundation of all that we do in defense of human life. Our efforts—whether educational, pastoral, or legislative—will be less than fully fruitful if we do not change hearts and if we do not ourselves overcome our own spiritual blindness. Only with prayer—prayer that storms the heavens for justice and mercy, prayer that cleanses our hearts and our souls—will the culture of death that surrounds us today be replaced with a culture of life.”
