Our Challenge

Dear friends,

Every great religious leader brings a new understanding of faith. There was a time when revenge was a moral right and a moral duty. But Moses taught the people of God that hate had no place in the life of faith. What a momentous shift in the history of religion occurred when people first realized that God lives in human hearts rather than in stone temples! We are the dwelling place of God on earth. Jesus never divorced himself from the teachings of the past. He did press those teachings for their deeper meanings and their wider relevance. Jesus is never content with the status quo. He always pushes people and groups a little farther down the road of spiritual maturity. There are times when loyalty to the past stands in the way of real progress. Scientists who are wed to the theories of the past are not open to new discoveries of truth. Societies that are bound by the traditions of the past are not open to new achievements of justice. Living in the past can cheat us out of what the future holds. We have good reasons for clinging to the traditions of the past. They have provided light and warmth for generations of us. The human quest for truth and faith, however, can never come to an end in this life. People without a future have lost their human birthright. We human beings are set apart from the animals by our ability to hope and to plan for the future. No matter what has happened to us in the past, the future is always open to new possibilities. Indeed, we live toward the future more than out of the past.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Lenten Regulations

In the Diocese of Baton Rouge, as in the rest of the Church in the United States, Catholics ages 18-59 are bound by a grave obligation to observe a solemn fast on both Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Catholics ages 14 and up are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday as well.

To fast means to consume only one full meal a day at most, although taking of other, smaller quantities of food at the other customary mealtimes is permitted. Food and drink "between meals" (excepting only water and medicine) is not permitted on fast days.

To abstain from meat means refraining from eating beef, veal, pork, or poultry at least, although not necessarily eggs, milk products, or meat broths or condiments made from animal fat. The consumption of fish, shellfish, and reptiles (e.g., turtle, alligator) is permitted if desired. Each in his or her own way, every Christian is bound to do penance by virtue of divine law. Only ill health or some similar situation of urgency excuses. Christ Jesus' own challenges to "prayer, fasting and almsgiving" are paramount (see the Gospel reading for Ash Wednesday, Mt 6:1-6, 16-18). We seek forgiveness for sin (especially in the Sacrament of Penance) and come to appreciate ever more the great sufferings and sacrifice which Jesus experienced for the sake of our salvation.
