Our Challenge

Dear friends,

In our first reading from the Acts of the Apostles this weekend, it seems that Philip must have felt alone when he went on a preaching mission to a strange town in a foreign land. He knew he would meet the opposition of rivals and the indifference of people. But Philip was never lonely because he knew that Christ traveled with him and worked through him. The early Christians were in the habit of constant vigilance because they lived under a constant threat. The Christian way was a rival to the established religion and politics of the day. But Peter reassured his readers that Christ was with them in the midst of persecution and rejection. Just like Philip, they were never alone, even when everyone stood against them. Jesus had done his best to prepare his disciples for his coming death. He assured them that God's Spirit would be with them to comfort and guide them. But he also promised them that someday they would all be together in the world to come. Half a century ago David Riesman published a sociological study of modern society entitled The Lonely Crowd. Riesman uncovered the central paradox of modern life to which we can especially relate in these days of dealing with the coronavirus: We have never lived closer together or been farther apart. A vast, untold number of us live lonely lives, even though we are constantly surrounded by multitudes of people. Probably more people than we imagine live isolated lives. Either their jobs take them to remote places or their circumstances cut them off from other people. But people who live alone will not be lonely if they belong to God and the people of God. Loneliness is more a state of mind than a location in space. We can be in the crush of a crowd and still feel lonely. We can be a hundred miles from another human being and still feel close. When we carry love in our hearts, we are never alone. Those we love and those who love us are a part of every thought we have, of every word we speak, of every deed we do.

Have a good week!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

ST. ALOYSIUS CATHOLIC CHURCH

PHASE 1 RE-OPENING – ST. ALOYSIUS CHURCH

Dear friends,

By now you've probably seen or read the Governor's announcement about Louisiana's entry this coming weekend into the Phase 1 loosening of restrictions during this still very active coronavirus pandemic. On the homepage of the website of the Diocese of Baton Rouge is posted Bishop Duca's "Statement on Re-Opening Churches for Congregational Worship."

In his statement, Bishop Duca continues to dispense all Catholics in the diocese from their Sunday obligation indefinitely, and in doing so, especially urges everyone over 65 or with health conditions making them immuno-compromised and at higher risk of contracting coronavirus to stay at home and continue making Acts of Spiritual Communion.

Initially, St. Aloysius will resume our regular schedule of public Masses with our WEEKDAY MASSES beginning on MONDAY MORNING, MAY 18, 2020, AT 6:00 A.M. ALL MASSES WILL BE ONLY IN THE MAIN CHURCH. We plan to resume our regular schedule of Sunday Masses on the weekend of May 23 – 24, 2020.

Our regular scheduled CONFESSIONS will also begin on Monday morning, May 18, 2020.

NOTE: During the Phase 1 Re-Opening, our church "CRY ROOM" has been re-configured as a RECONCILIATION room for the times of scheduled confessions, in which the social distancing precautions can be safely observed for both penitent and confessor.

As you've maybe observed in the information already published at other parishes, no two parishes are alike in how and when they are re-opening, as all the details to be considered vary in complexity with each parish. My first priority in implementing a re-opening process at St. Aloysius is the health, safety, and well-being of all our parishioners. I assure you that none of my decisions are being made 'in a vacuum.' I'm writing this having just concluded a 1 ½ hour conference call meeting with our Parish Pastoral Council.

'Stay tuned' in the next day or so for a very detailed message about our re-opening process.

Yours in our Good Shepherd,
Father Randy

WORD OF LIFE

May 17, 2020

"As Americans, as Catholics and as pastors of our people, we write therefore today to call our fellow citizens back to our country's founding principles, and most especially to renew our national respect for the rights of those who are unborn, weak, disabled and terminally ill.

Real freedom rests on the inviolability of every person as a child of God."
